THE PRIZE RING.

The Coming Great Prize Fight Near New Orleans.

[St. Louis (April 22) correspondence of the New Orica...s Times.]

Joe Coburn arrived here on Taursday, and brings the latest news respecting the condition of Allen, who is still hard at it getting into condition, under who is still hard at it getting into condition, under the tutelage of John Goldie, Goburn acting as a sort of general supervisor. Alten he announces as training web, but as yet a little too "lumpy," and it was thought he would be able to strip at 170 pounds for the fight. His power of endurance and blooming health are snot to be wonderful, and are no doubt due entirely to his general abstemiousness and avoidance of dissipation. He speaks confidently and cheeringly of his ability to win the money, and will be on hand in due time. Up here his match is looked upon as a sort of prize ring revival meeting. Some half dozen pugs are, it is said, ready to challenge the winner, and all at heavy amounts; among them are included the Ben cia Boy and Hocky Moore, the latter of whom has already challenged A len for $6,000. The money is now all up and officially acknowledged, so that the most important obstacle of the aght is surmounted. Betting on the result is exceedingly say, both Heckman's and Copara's opinions being cited as not over confident upon either. It is believed that these two gentlemen will appear as seconds in the ghaliatorial contest. A large delegation will leave for your et yn about ten days, among whom partisa iship is about equally divided.

SLAVERY IN CALIFORNIA .- Chinese women, it is SLAVERY IN CALIPORNIA.—Chinese women, it is a secretel, are held in a state of slavery in California. One of the sufferers re-carly complained to the Chief of Police at San Francisco, that she had entered into a contract for three years' service, and that at the expiration of this time her master had refused to permit her to return to China. It is alleged that the masters, taking advantage of the ignorance of these female servants, exclude them from intercourse with the world, and hold them in a condition of actual slavery. It is proposed to levy compulsory contributions on the Chinese gambling houses in San Francis o to raise the innos wherewith to pay the expenses of the return of these female slaves to China.
